

I am in favor of keeping the Do Not Call List state regulated. I feel the the state has done a good job so far. For the first time in years I don't have to deal with telemarketing calls during dinner and in the evening. I feel that Wisconsin should continue to have control over what happens within the state. I DO NOT WANT to see the rules for the Do Not Call List relaxed, which I feel may happen if controlled by the FED.